

Rozlyn Coleman Engel

Work address:

Department of Social Sciences
Lincoln Hall B121
U.S. Military Academy
West Point, NY 10996
845-938-5212
rozlyn.engel@usma.edu

Home address:

136 Greenwood Drive
Millburn, NJ 07041
973-258-0135
engelrc@cs.com

Research and Teaching

- 2003-2004 Assistant Professor, U.S. Military Academy, West Point, NY
Course director for International Economics: selected primary text, developed course content, set academic standards for required upper-level course within economics major. Also taught Intermediate Microeconomic Theory within the major and the Academy-wide core course of Principles of Economics. Founder and director of department's faculty research seminar.
Current research interests: econometric analyses of gender issues within the military; effects of compensation/benefits on recruitment and retention within the military; economic impact of HIV/AIDS within developing countries; and emerging health and demographic issues.
- 2000-2001 Instructor, Center for Public Service, Seton Hall University
Principal instructor for core M.P.A./M.H.A. courses in statistics, microeconomics, and financial management. Developed course content and set academic standards.
- 1999-2000 Research Assistant, Graduate School of Business, Columbia University
Supported Dr. Raymond Fisman's research on firm behavior in sub-Saharan Africa.
- 1999-2000 Reader, Department of Economics, Columbia University
International Trade, undergraduate.
Economics of Sustainable Development, undergraduate.
- 1990-1991 Research Assistant, Brookings Institution, Washington, DC
Managed spreadsheet detailing U.S. performance; assisted in forecasting U.S. economy.

Education

- 2003 Ph.D., economics, Columbia University
Research areas: Labor economics, applied econometrics, health and development
Dissertation: "Life, Death, and Human Capital: Essays on How African Firms and Workers Are Responding to the HIV/AIDS Epidemic"
- 2001 M.Phil., economics, Columbia University
- 1989 M.Sc., economic history, London School of Economics
- 1986 A.B., economics, Smith College

Academic Honors

- 2001-2003 Bradley Research Fellow, Department of Economics, Columbia University
- 2002 GSAS Summer Research Fellow, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Columbia University
- 1999-2001 President's Fellow, Columbia University
- 1988-1989 LSE 1980s Fund Scholar, London School of Economics
- 1985-1986 President, Smith College Debating Society, and prize-winning intercollegiate debater

Other Professional Experience

- 1995-1996 Managing Editor, Russell Sage Foundation, New York, NY
- 1992-1994 Assistant Editor, International Monetary Fund, Washington, DC
- 1991-1992 Assistant Editor, Brookings Institution, Washington, DC
- 1987-1988 Legislative Correspondent, U.S. Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, Washington, DC

Research Papers

“Life, Death, and Human Capital: Effects of HIV/AIDS Mortality on Worker Training in Sub-Saharan Africa.” Paper being prepared for publication.

“Gender Ratios and the Marriage Market for Young Women: Evidence from Army Personnel Data.” Paper being prepared for presentation at the Western Economic Association meetings in Vancouver, British Columbia, June 29, 2004 to July 3, 2004.

Community Service

- 2004-present Treasurer, Congregation B'nai Israel, Millburn, NJ: Primary fiduciary responsibility for synagogue with 525 member households and $1.5 million annual operating budget.
- 2003-present Member, Strategic Planning Steering Committee, Congregation B'nai Israel, Millburn, NJ: Leadership role in long-range planning, including major capital campaign and facilities expansion anticipated for 2005-06.
- 2002- present Member, Board of Trustees, Congregation B'nai Israel, Millburn, NJ: Community leader and policymaker for my synagogue in northern New Jersey.